"There would be no great ones if there were no little ones."
 -George Herber

SILENT PRAYER

In the beginning, God, you made the world; made it and mothered it, shaped it and fathered it, filled it with fertility and variety – all that is green, blue, deep and growing. Be our shepherd during Lent that we may become servants of your love. Amen.

PRELUDE & LIGHTING OF CANDLES Psalm 27 Emma Lou Diemer (b. 1927)

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
 The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

WORDS OF WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: All of creation is alive with the greatness of God!
 Many: The heavens shine with the glory of the Lord, while babes and children sing God's praises.

One: When we look at the works of the Creator, we are stunned by their beauty, and humbled by our small place in the universe.
 Many: Where do we fit in God's grand hopes and goals?

One: We have been entrusted with responsibility to care for this earthly home, its people and creatures, and empowered by hope.
 Many: Worship connects us to God's love and leadership; praise and prayer will enable us to serve the Almighty's gracious will.

All: So let us lift our voices together in grateful song!
 (adapted from Psalm 8)

ANTHEM Of Hospitality Jane Marshall (b. 1924)
 I saw a stranger yestreen. I put food in the eating place, drink in the drinking place, music in the listening place. And in the sacred name of the Triune, he blessed myself, he blessed my house, he blessed my cattle and my dear ones. And the lark said in her song, "Often comes Love in the stranger's guise." --from an old Gaelic rune

Great God of all, your giving knows no ending, from your rich and endless store. We turn to you and offer ourselves to you through these gifts, in thankful praise.
