TRISH SIEFER

Trish was raised in New Jersey, the middle of three children. Growing up, she was surrounded by lots of cousins, aunts and uncles and a dog named, Duffy. She played soccer, basketball and ran track and played the piano. At Colgate University, Trish majored in Psychology and was captain of the women's rugby team. After college, Trish went to law school and worked in a law firm in Philadelphia for several years before moving to Concord in 1998 to be with her boyfriend (now husband, Shane). After working for several years at a Boston law firm and then at the Massachusetts Attorney General's office, Trish took some time off to raise their five children, Blaise, Cole, Declan, Eli and Ainsley.

Trish has been an active and enthusiastic volunteer serving in the Concord schools, on the Board of the Concord Carlisle Community Chest and as a Corporator at Emerson Hospital. She co-founded a local women's running group, the Concord Grapes", completing the Reach the Beach 200 mile NH running relay with the group for the past nine years. She loves to read, exercise and dance.

Trish loves spending time with Shane and their five children at their many soccer games. Their "happy place" is a family home in the Adirondack Mountains in upstate NY where Trish has summered her whole life and where Shane proposed to her.

Trish is passionate about her community and feels strongly that Concord is a special place to live and work. She is very thankful to be part of TriCon, a wonderfully open and caring community.
