“There is something in every one of you that waits and listens for the sound of the genuine in yourself. It is the only true guide you will ever have. And if you cannot hear it, you will all of your life spend your days on the ends of strings that somebody else pulls.”

— Howard Thurman

BENEDICTION

One: May God bless us with discomfort...

All: at easy answers, half-truths
and superficial relationships,
so that we will live deeply in our hearts.

One: May God bless us with anger...

All: at injustice, oppression and exploitation of people and the earth,
so that we will work for justice,
equity and peace.

One:: May God bless us with tears...

All: to shed for those who suffer,
so that we will reach out our hands
to comfort them and change their pain to joy.

One: And may God bless us with the foolishness to think...

All: that we can make a difference in our world...
So that we will do the things which others say cannot be done.

One: The peace of Christ be with you all...

A prayer by Thomas Merton

My Lord God:

I have no idea where I am going.

I do not see the road ahead of me.

I cannot know for certain where it will lead
in the end.

Nor do I really know myself,

and the fact that I think that I am following your way

does not mean that I am actually doing so.

But I do believe that the desire to please you
does in fact please you.

And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing.

I hope that I will never do anything apart
from that desire.

And I know that if I do this,

you will lead me by the right road

though I may know nothing about it.

Therefore, will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost

and in the shadow of death.

I will not fear, for you are ever with me,

and will not leave me to face my perils alone.
